Summary

Enthusiastic and innovative third-year computer science Ph.D. candidate specializing in deep learning and computer vision, particularly focusing on image segmentation and continual learning. Comprehensive understanding of these areas, combined with proficiency in relevant programming techniques. Seeking an internship opportunity in the AI field to contribute to impactful projects and enhance professional skills.

Education

2021/09 – now Ph.D., City University of Hong Kong, Computer Science
Research focus: Computer Vision, Image segmentation, Continual Learning

2017/09 – 2021/06 B.Eng., Beijing University of Posts and Telecommunications, Electronic Information Science and Technology

Employment History

2019/08 – 2021/06 Tsinghua University, Research Intern
Analyzed and applied human PPG signals using deep learning techniques.

2018/08 – 2018/08 Beijing Ourpalm Co., Ltd., Intern
Conducted testing for a new mobile game and wrote gameplay introductions
